Can I download and save the course material?

Online Learning Centre · https://psyasia.com/kb/can-i-download-and-save-the-course-material/

You may only download material that is clearly marked as downloadable. Usually, this is PDF documents. In such cases, we license you to download the documents for your personal use only and they are not to be shared with people outside of the course.

Our video files are not intended for download for a number of reasons. Firstly, to protect our copyright and intellectual property. Secondly, to ensure that only current knowledge is being taught. We ensure that we only teach cutting-edge, current practice and therefore update our content as necessary. We don't wish to see uncontrolled dissemination of out-of-date content.

Our servers will monitor for abuse of the above policy and where recorded, we may terminate accounts with immediate effect and take any recovery action that may be deemed necessary. Please only access the course and related materials from within your user account online.