What if I don’t pass the quizzes or practicals on the Psychometrics for HR Decisions Course?

You will be given some time to review the recorded sessions and then undertake your "reset" quizzes again. Likewise you will be given an opportunity to retake any practicals that you did not pass. Any assessment which takes place outside of the regular course time incurs a reassessment fee (kindly check current fee with our team). There is no fee for resetting your quiz on the first occasion. If you fail a quiz two times, you will be asked to redo the course at a date when you are more able to absorb the material. If you need to do this, you will need to pay the course fee at that time minus a 40% discount.
