What is a development centre?

Assessment Centres · https://psyasia.com/kb/what-is-a-development-center/

An development centre is a tool (not a place) that uses a number of different methods of assessment in one session to enable a rounded and accurate assessment of an individual for development purposes.

Development centers...

- Designed to discover strengths & development needs
- Intention of feeding back results to candidates and devising development plan
- Exercises designed to reveal key strengths and development needs
- A good idea to know something about corporate strategy and manpower plan
