What is an assessment centre?

Assessment Centres · https://psyasia.com/kb/what-is-an-assessment-center/

An assessment centre is a tool (not a place) that uses a number of different methods of assessment in one session to enable a rounded and accurate assessment of an individual for selection. Development Centers are similar to Assessment Centers, but their focus is on developing an individual who has already been selected for a job position.

- It provides detailed information on how a person performs in a variety of different situations
- It is primarily used in selection
- The ultimate aim is to appoint or promote to a particular job or career path
- It is used to assess job suitability